What To Bring

The temperature varies during the day, so you will need a variety of clothes, including plenty of warm clothing (long pants) to keep you comfortable during cold evenings. A warm jacket and two pairs of shoes that are suitable for hiking and sports, and a raincoat or umbrella are also recommended. Laundry facilities are not available. A laundry bag would be useful. Most sessions have a “banquet” night, so bring a set of “dressy” clothes.

A warm sleeping bag or several blankets and a pillow (it gets cold at night.)

Toiletries (soap, shampoo, toothbrush, etc), towels and washcloth, bible, notebook, pen or pencil, flashlight and batteries.

Please identify your belongings with your name.

Please do not bring expensive electronic equipment or food to camp. Snacks and treats (cokes, candy, and non-sweet items) are available in the camp canteen. Cell phones will not work at camp.
